

About Laguiole French Knives

Delve into the rich history of Laguiole steak knives, a legacy forged in 1828 by the skilled hands of Mr. Moulin, an accomplished cutler from the quaint village of Laguiole. The journey begins with the creation of the inaugural masterpiece, setting the stage for a tradition that endures to this day. Handcrafted with meticulous precision in both Thiers and Laguiole, our knives bear witness to the authentic artistry passed down through generations.

Immerse yourself in the unique character of each Laguiole knife, a tangible embodiment of tradition and individuality. Our expert artisans, with unwavering dedication, infuse 170 manual operations into the crafting process, transforming raw materials into a distinctive work of art. Experience the timeless craftsmanship that defines Laguiole, where each knife tells a story of heritage, skill, and unparalleled attention to detail.

As you explore the heritage of Laguiole knives, you'll discover a world where history and craftsmanship converge, culminating in blades that not only serve practical purposes but also stand as symbols of a venerable tradition that continues to thrive.